14.-(1) The financial year of the Board shall be the period of twelve months beginning from the 1st day of July and ending on the 30th day of June in the year following.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) the first financial year of the Board may be a shorter period commencing on the date on which the Board is established and ending with the next following 30th day of June.

PART IV LICENSING PROCEDURES

Conditions for operating warehouse
under the Act

15.-(1) The Board may, upon application, issue a warehouse license for the conduct of warehouse business.

(2) Two or more warehouses which constitute a station may be licensed under a single licence.

(3) All warehouses licensed under a single licence shall be treated as a single warehouse for all the purposes of this Act, including issuance of receipts, and delivery of commodities.

Licensing procedure

16.-(1) Any person who requires a licence to conduct warehousing operations or business shall apply to the Board in the manner prescribed by regulations.

(2) The Board shall, before granting a warehouse licence, either by itself or any other authorized person, inspect any warehouse in respect of which a license is applied, to determine whether the warehouse is suitable for the storage of the particular goods for which the license is applied.

(3) The Board shall, upon being satisfied that a warehouse is suitable for the storage of the goods in question, grant a warehouse license to the applicant.

(4) The applicant shall, upon being granted a licence pay a fee prescribed by the Board.

Validity of licence

17. The validity of the license shall be twelve months and shall be renewable subject to the provisions of this Act.

Conditions for granting of a license Act No. 3 of 2015 s.9

18.-(1) The Board shall not grant any license, unless the applicant has satisfied all the conditions prescribed by the Act.

(2) Before the Board grants a license to any person it shall satisfy itself of the following-

- (a) that the applicant is in possession of a Warehouse whether as a tenant or owner;
- (b) that upon inspection the warehouse is suitable for warehousing of respective goods in accordance with the regulations made under this Act;
- (c) that the applicant's Director or Manager is of good business and management records and has not been involved in any criminal proceedings involving business and dishonesty or impropriety;
- (d) that the warehouse and the goods which are or may be kept therein are fully insured in respect of fire, theft and burglary or any other damage; and
- (e) that the applicant is financially capable of conducting the business of warehousing.

(3) A person to whom a licence has been granted by the Board shall not, without approval of the Board assign it to any other person.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and on conviction, is liable to a fine of not less than twenty million shillings or to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding five years or both.

Applicant to execute bond Act No. 3 of 2015 s. 10

19.-(1) Warehouse operator applying for a license under this Act shall execute and file with the Board a bond sufficient to secure the faithful performance by him of the obligations as a warehouse operator under this Act and regulations and other statutory instruments made under this Act.

(2) Where the Board determines that a previously approved bond is, or for any cause has become insufficient, it may require an additional bond or bonds to be given by the warehouse operator concerned, conforming with the requirements of this section, and, unless the additional bond is given within the time fixed by a written demand made by the Board, the license of the warehouse operator may be suspended or revoked by the Board.

Action on bond by person injured

20. Any person injured by reason of the breach of any obligation for which a bond is given, shall be entitled to sue on the bond in his own name in any court, not lower than the Court of a Resident Magistrate to recover the damages for injury sustained because of the breach.

Designation as a licensed and bonded warehouse

21.-(1) Upon execution of a bond, the Board may designate the warehouse in respect of which a bond was executed as both licensed and bonded.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, no warehouse shall be designated as licensed and bonded under this Act and no name or description conveying the impression that any of such warehouse is licensed and bonded, shall be used -

- (a) until a licence has been issued and a bond has been filed and approved by the Board; or
- (b) unless the licence issued under this Act remains unsuspended and not revoked.

Casualty insurance and recovery for loss

22.-(1) Each applicant for a license to operate a warehouse in accordance with this Act shall, as a condition to the granting, file or cause to be filed with the Board a certificate of insurance evidencing effective policy of insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in Tanzania in the name of the applicant insuring all commodities which are or may be in such warehouse for their full market value for loss by fire, theft, bulgaraly, arson or any other risk which the Board may direct to be included under this category.

(2) In the case of outbreak of fire, bulgaraly, arson or any other risk categorized under sub-section (1) and destroys or damages any commodities in any licensed warehouse, the warehouse operator shall, upon demand by the depositor, and upon being presented with the receipt or other evidence of ownership and after deducting the warehouse operators charges and advances at the market value of the commodity, make the settlement.

(3) The warehouse operator shall make complete settlement to all depositors having commodities stored in any warehouse, damaged or destroyed, within ten days' after settlement with the insurance company.

(4) Failure by the warehouse operator to make settlement shall be the grounds for suspension or revocation of the warehouse licence.

Additional insurance

23.-(1) Where the Board determines that a previously approved insurance is insufficient, it shall require additional insurance to be given by the warehouse operator, conforming to the requirements of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the warehouse operator shall be required to upgrade the insurance policy with a view to maintain sufficient policy all the time arising from settlement of loss through insurance, the warehouse operator shall meet the amount that falls short of the value of the loss unable to be settled through insurance.

Cancellation of insurance or suspension and revocation of license

24.-(1) A licensed warehouse operator shall not cancel or suspend an approved insurance policy or arrange for substitution of insurance policy without prior written approval of the Board.

(2) The insurance company may cancel insurance required by this Act only after the expiration of a thirty day period from the date of mailing, by registered or certified mail, of the notice to the Board of the intention to cancel or suspend the insurance policy.

(3) The insurance company shall, at the time of giving notice to the Board send a copy of the notice to the warehouse operator.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, failure by the warehouse operator to provide new evidence of insurance within fifteen days after the Board receives the notice of cancellation shall cause the warehouse license to be suspended or revoked.

Schedule of charges

25.-(1) Every applicant for a licence to operate a warehouse under this Act shall, as a condition to the granting, file or cause to be filed with the Board the commodities from among the notified list proposed to be warehoused and a copy of the schedule of charges as a warehouse operator.

(2) A licensed warehouse operator shall not make a change in the charges unless a notice of such change and the reasons thereof have been filed with and the Board approves the change.

(3) The Board shall refuse to approve any change, which it finds to be unjust, unreasonable, or discriminatory.

(4) Where the Board receives a proposal for changes of charges, it shall afford opportunity to the warehouse operator to substantiate reasons for changes.

(5) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Board, may appeal to the Minister.

Revocation,
suspension,
and denial of licenses

26.-(1) The Board may revoke, suspend, or deny a license in any case, in which it determines after providing opportunity for a hearing to the warehouse operator that there has been violation of or failure to comply with the requirements of this Act.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the suspension or revocation of a license by the Board, may appeal to the Minister.

Operation
after revocation, suspension or expiration of licenses

27.-(1) Where a license is revoked, suspended or has expired, the warehouse operator shall terminate, in the manner prescribed by the Board, all arrangements covering the receiving, storing, shipping, conditioning, or handling of commodities in the warehouse stations covered by such license, but shall be permitted, under direction or supervision of the Board to deliver commodities previously received.

(2) During any suspension of a license, the warehouse operator may, under direction or supervision of the Board, operate the warehouse station, but shall not receive any commodities for storage, conditioning, shipping, or handling during the term of such suspension.

Power to appoint inspectors

28.-(1) The Board may appoint or otherwise authorize persons or a group of persons to be warehouse inspectors.

(2) The Minister shall prescribe in the regulations qualifications of a person to be appointed as an inspector.

Functions of Inspectors

29. The inspectors appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall have power to inspect warehouse premises and goods kept to ensure that the warehouse operator observes the conditions in this Act, regulations and those appearing on the issued license.

Power of entry, inspection,
etc.

receipts

34.-(1) A warehouse receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the person named in the receipt or his order shall be known as a negotiable warehouse receipt.

(2) No words shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt with the effect of rendering that receipt non-negotiable.

(3) The Minister may prescribe in the regulations the procedure and limits of negotiation of negotiable warehouse receipts.

Non-negotiable
warehouse
receipts

35. A warehouse receipt on which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer shall be treated as a non-negotiable receipt.

Altered
warehouse
receipts
Act No.
3 of 2015
s.13

36.-(1) An alteration to a warehouse receipt shall be regarded as-

- (a) immaterial if the alteration does not affect ex-ante proprietary rights of the holder;
- (b) authorized when made with an implied or direct permission or connivance of the Warehouse operator and which render a warehouse operator and the perpetrator liable under the provisions of this Act; or

- (c) unauthorized but made without fraudulent intent, when made without an implied or direct permission or connivance of the warehouse operator and which render the warehouse operator liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a warehouse receipt shall be void if-

- (a) the warehouse receipt is not consistent with the requirements stipulated under section 33;
- (b) the contents of the warehouse receipt are not duly filled in;
- (c) it is not signed by authorised parties;
- (d) there is a duplication of serial numbers;
- (e) there is mismatch of records between the warehouse receipt and inner documents; or
- (f) there is a misrepresentation of required information.

Rights of purchasers of altered receipt against warehouse operator

37.-(1) A purchaser of a warehouse receipt for value without notice of alteration shall acquire the same proprietary rights against the warehouse operator which the purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of purchase.

(2) A purchaser of a warehouse receipt shall be regarded to have had notice of alteration, if before the purchase of the warehouse receipt, he or his agent took part in or influenced the alteration of the said warehouse receipt.

(3) A purchaser of an altered warehouse receipt who has been found or who could be reasonably imputed with possession of notice of alteration commits an offence and shall be proceeded under section 74 in the same footing with the operator.

Lost or missing warehouse receipts Act No. 3 of 2015 s.14

38.-(1) The holder shall, in the case of loss, theft or destruction of a warehouse receipt, immediately report to warehouse operator.

(2) Subject subsection (1), the warehouse operator, shall, upon receipt of the information of loss, theft or destruction of a warehouse receipt, immediately report to the Board.

(3) If a warehouse receipt has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a duplicate may be issued by the warehouse operator provided that-

- (a) the holder pays a prescribed fee; and
- (b) the request of the holder is accompanied by-

- (i) a police report of the loss, theft, or destruction of the receipt;
  - (ii) download from the website of the Board or an approval letter from the Board; and
  - (iii) a copy of a notice of loss, theft, or destruction published in a newspaper of nationwide circulation.
- (4) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, prescribe some of the requirements under subsection (2) which shall not apply to a certain class or category of warehouses.
- (5) An appeal regarding the issuance or otherwise of a duplicate receipt shall be made to the Board.
- (6) Any person dealing in warehouse operation using the original receipt after a duplicate receipt has been issued commits an offence for issuing false information.

Duplicate warehouse receipts

- 39.-(1) A warehouse receipt upon the face of which the word “duplicate” is plainly placed shall be a representation and warranty by the warehouse operator that such warehouse receipt-
- (a) is an accurate copy of the original receipt ; and
  - (b) has the same rights as the original receipt properly issued and outstanding at the date of issue of the duplicate.
- (2) A duplicate receipt issued shall have the same standing as the original and shall not impose upon the warehouse operator any additional liability.

Collateral Manager Act No. 3 of 2015 s. 15

- 39A.-(1) A person who wishes to perform functions of a collateral manager shall apply for a licence to the Board.
- (2) The Minister may make regulations prescribing among other things:
- (a) functions, rights and obligations of a collateral manager; and
  - (b) conditions to be fulfilled by a collateral manager before applying for a licence under this section.”

PART VI RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF WAREHOUSE OPERATORS

Obligation of a warehouse operator to deliver goods

- 40. Except as provided in this Act, a warehouse operator shall deliver the goods upon demand made by the holder of the warehouse receipt or depositor, if the holder or depositor-
- (a) offers to effect payments for the warehouse operator’s lien on the goods;

- (b) offers to sign relevant documents proving the delivery of the goods.

Obligation to deliver in accordance to the demand of the holder

41.-(1) Subject to section 40, the warehouse operator shall have obligation to deliver the goods in accordance with the demand by the warehouse receipt holder or, as the case may be, the depositor.

(2) Where the warehouse operator refuses to deliver the goods as demanded by the warehouse receipt holder or depositor, the burden shall be upon the warehouse operator to establish the existence of any lawful excuse for the refusal.

(3) Where the warehouse operator refuses to deliver the goods as demanded by the depositor or holder of warehouse receipt because of the reason that the warehouse receipt was altered, the holder or depositor who had notice of alteration shall be estopped from demanding more or less proprietary rights in the warehouse receipt than those provided on the altered warehouse receipt.

Justification for delivery of goods

42. Subject to provisions of sections 40 and 41, a warehouse operator shall deliver goods only after being satisfied that-

- (a) the person receiving the goods is lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods;
- (b) by the terms indicated in the warehouse receipt issued for the particular goods, that person is entitled to delivery, either by himself or on his written authorization, to another person.

Liability for mis-delivery

43.-(1) A warehouse operator shall not deliver the goods if, prior to delivery, he receives information or otherwise becomes aware that a person to whom delivery is about to be made is not legally entitled to the delivery.

(2) A warehouse operator who-

- (a) comes to know that the person who claim delivery of the goods is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession thereof;
- (b) ignores the request not to make delivery of the goods, made under paragraph (a);
- (c) had information or knowledge that the delivery about to be made was to a person not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, and continues to deliver the goods, shall be liable for conversion to all persons having proprietary rights in or possession of the goods.

Exception to obligation to deliver

44. The warehouse operator shall not be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to a holder of a receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt is negotiable, in a situation where goods have been lawfully sold or disposed of-

- (a) because of their perishable or hazardous nature; or
- (b) to satisfy the warehouse operator's lien.

Liability for failure to cancel warehouse receipt after delivering goods

45.-(1) Except as provided for under this Act, where a warehouse operator delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt shall take up and cancel the receipt.

(2) A warehouse operator who delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable for failure to deliver goods to depositor or to any person who purchases such receipt for value and in good faith.

(3) If the receipt is not taken up or cancelled as provided for under subsection (1), the fact that the purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by a warehouse operator shall not exonerate the warehouse operator from liability.

Liability for failure to cancel or mark warehouse receipt when part of the goods have been delivered

46.-(1) Except as provided under this Act, where a warehouse operator delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable warehouse receipt, he shall-

- (a) take up and cancel that receipt and issue a new receipt for the remaining goods; or
- (b) place conspicuously upon it a statement of what goods and packages have been delivered.

(2) A warehouse operator who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) shall be liable for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt to any person who purchases such receipt for value and in good faith.

(3) If the receipt is not taken up or cancelled as provided for under subsection (1), the fact that the purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by a warehouse operator shall not exonerate the warehouse operator from liability.

Liability after a warehouse receipt has

47. Subject to the provisions of section 38, a warehouse operator shall be liable for failure to deliver goods to a person to been lost, stolen or destroyed

whom the lost, stolen or destroyed warehouse receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value in good faith and without notice of the fact that a duplicate receipt has been issued or goods have already been delivered.

Delivering goods to persons with valid titles or right

48.-(1) The warehouse operator shall take all necessary precautions to ensure that the delivery of goods is made to a person who has lawfully obtained a warehouse receipt.

(2) The warehouse operator's title or right to the possession of goods shall only be derived directly or indirectly from-

- (a) a transfer made by a depositor at the time of or subsequent to deposit of goods; or
- (b) lien.

(3) Unless the title or right to possession of the goods by a warehouse operator is obtained in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) no title or right to possession of goods shall exonerate the Warehouse Operator from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms indicated on the warehouse receipt.

Ascertaining valid titles to goods

Cap.33

49.-(1) In cases where more than one person are claiming title or possession of the goods, the warehouse operator shall, before making delivery of those goods to either of them, require all known claimants to goods to interplead in accordance with the Civil Procedure Code.

(2) The suit for which the warehouse operator shall request claimants to interplead referred to under subsection (1), may be filed as an action against the warehouse operator for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit.

(3) The warehouse operator shall not be liable for non-delivery if he has evidence to believe that someone other than the depositor or person claiming under him, has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and that because of that evidence the warehouse operator is taking reasonable steps to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to initiate legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead.

(4) The ascertainment of the right claimant of the goods by interpleading or any other manner shall be initiated within twenty four hours of initial notice to the warehouse operator and the procedure shall be completed within seven days.

(5) Except as is allowed under this section, the fact that a third person has right or title to goods, shall not be a defense to an action brought by the holder of the warehouse receipt or person claiming under him against the warehouse operator for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms indicated on the warehouse receipt.

Liability for mis-described goods

50.-(1) Subject to subsection (2), the warehouse operator shall be liable to the holder of the warehouse receipt for damages caused by non-existence of the goods or by failure of the goods being delivered to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of deposit.

(2) The warehouse operator shall not be liable for goods which are being conditioned or processed and such conditioning or processing is noted on the warehouse receipt.

(3) A mere description in the warehouse receipt by a statement of marks or label, or upon packages, or by a depositor's statement that the goods do contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, though found to be true, shall not render the warehouse operator liable.

Warehouse operator's duty of care

51.-(1) A warehouse operator shall exercise such care in regard to the goods kept by him as reasonably and as carefully as a reasonable and careful owner of similar goods would exercise.

(2) In addition to other conditions that may be imposed to the warehouse operator's license, the warehouse operator shall be liable for breach of duty of care if he acts contrary to subsection (1) in keeping safe custody of the goods.

Duty to keep goods separately

52. Except as provided in this Act, a warehouse operator shall keep goods of each depositor separate from goods of other depositors and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued as to permit the identification and re-delivery of the goods deposited.

Comingling of fungible goods Act No. 3 of 2015 s. 16

53.-(1) A warehouse operator may, with the approval of the Board, mingle fungible goods with other goods of same kind and grade.

(2) In case the warehouse operator has mingled the goods in accordance with subsection (1), various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole.

(3) The warehouse operator shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and delivery of his share of the mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate.

Warehouse operator's right to lien

54.-(1) A warehouse operator's lien on goods deposited or the proceeds thereof shall derive from-

- (a) all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods;
- (b) lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labour, weighing, cooping and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods;
- (c) all reasonable charges and expenses incurred for notice and advertisements of sale; and
- (d) sale of the goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouse operator's lien.

(2) The term "warehouse operator's lien" as used in subsection (1) and subsequent provisions of this Part means the right of a warehouse operator to recoup expenses necessarily incurred for services rendered or supplied in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) and the term "right of lien" shall be construed accordingly.

Enforcement of lien

55. A warehouse operator's lien may be enforced subject to the provisions of section 56-

- (a) against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted; and
- (b) against all goods belonging to others, which have been deposited by the person who is liable as a debtor for the claims to which the lien is asserted if such person has been entrusted with goods at the time of deposit just as person who takes the goods in good faith and for value.

Loss of lien

56. A warehouse operator shall lose right of his lien upon the goods by-

- (a) surrendering possession thereof; or
- (b) refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this Act.

Statement of charges under lien

57. Where a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouse operator shall have no lien thereon, except for charges of storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed in which case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of section 54, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt.

Refusal to deliver goods until lien is satisfied

58. A warehouse operator having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied.

Warehouse operator's lien does not preclude other remedies

59. The fact that a warehouse operator has or has not a lien upon the goods, shall not affect entitlement to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouse operator.

Methods of enforcing the lien Act No. 3 of 2015 s. 17

60.-(1) A warehouse operator's lien may be satisfied by-
(a) sale of goods;
(b) other remedies allowed by the law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property; or
(c) any other action for recovery of the warehouse operator's claim.

(2) Where a warehouse operator refuses to deliver goods for the purpose of satisfying a lien, the Board shall assess and approve the value and amount of the commodity to be sold to satisfy the lien.

Perishable and hazardous goods

61.-(1) Where the goods are of a perishable nature and likely to deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature, are likely to injure other property or endanger the life of persons legally likely to come into contact with the goods, the warehouse operator may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods, and to remove them from the warehouse.

, and in the event of failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove such goods within the time so specified, the warehouse operator may sell the goods at public or private sale with or without advertising.

(2) If after reasonable efforts have been made the warehouse operator is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof.

(3) The proceeds of any sale made under the terms of this section shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sales made under this Act.

PART VII
NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

Different ways of negotiating a warehouse receipt

62. A negotiable warehouse receipt to the order of a name of person may be negotiated by endorsement and delivery-
(a) after endorsement in blank or to the bearer; or
(b) after endorsement to a specific person.

Negotiation by endorsement

63.(1) Negotiation of a negotiable warehouse receipt after it has been endorsed to a specified person shall require endorsement of the endorsee as well as delivery.

(2) An endorsement made pursuant to subsection (1) shall be made to a specified person and may be again negotiated to another specified person and subsequent negotiations shall be done in the like manner.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a negotiable warehouse receipt shall be regarded as "duly negotiated" when it is negotiated in the manner stated under this section to a person who purchases it in good faith, without notice of any defect or claim to it on the part of any person, and for value.

Effect of endorsement to non-negotiable receipt

64. Endorsement of a non-negotiable warehouse receipt shall not render it negotiable.

Persons capable of negotiating a warehouse receipt

65. A negotiable warehouse receipt may be negotiated by any person in possession of the same irrespective of the manner the warehouse receipt was acquired, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouse operator undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of such person or if at the time of negotiation the receipt is in such a form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

Rights
acquired after due negotiation of
receipt

66.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person to whom the receipt has been duly negotiated, shall acquire-

- (a) such title to goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchase in good faith and for value;
- (b) the direct obligation of the warehouse operator to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouse operator had contracted direct with him; and
- (c) all rights accruing under the law of agency, estoppel, including right to good delivered to the warehouse operator after the warehouse receipt was delivered.

(2) The negotiation of a warehouse receipt in good faith and the acquisition of title by a person to whom a warehouse receipt has been negotiated, shall create a direct obligation to the warehouse operator to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouse operator had contracted directly with him.

Rights acquired in the absence of due negotiation of a warehouse
receipt

67. A warehouse receipt may be transferred without negotiation if it has been transferred by-

- (a) the holder to another person under a separate arrangement or agreement; or
- (b) order of the court.

Rights of a transferee of a warehouse
receipt

68.-(1) A transferee of a warehouse receipt, which is not duly negotiated shall acquire thereby against the transferor, the title of the goods.

(2) The title acquired by the transferee shall be subject to the terms of the agreement with the transferor.

(3) The court may order a warehouse receipt to be transferred where it is proved that there was an agreement to that effect between the transferor and the transferee.

(4) Where a warehouse receipt that has been transferred becomes non-negotiable, in order to acquire title to the goods, the transferee shall notify the warehouse operator of the transfer to him of such warehouse receipt.

Cap.33

(5) Proceedings instituted for the purpose of enforcing rights of a transferee of a warehouse receipt shall be made by way of summary procedure provided for under Order XXXV of the Civil Procedure Code Act.

(6) Where a warehouse receipt that has been transferred is not negotiated before the transferee notifies the warehouse operator of the transfer to him, the transferee's claim of title to the goods may be defeated by-

- (a) an attachment order or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor to the extent of such order or execution; or
- (b) a subsequent purchaser in good faith from the transferor or a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

Rights and obligations of transferors and transferees of negotiable warehouse receipts

69.-(1) The transferee of a negotiable warehouse receipt for value and in good faith shall have the right to compel the transferor of such receipt to endorse the receipt in a case where endorsement is essential for negotiation.

(2) In a case where it is essential that the warehouse receipt should be endorsed before it is transferred, that warehouse receipt shall not be regarded as negotiated until the transferor endorses it.

(3) The endorsement of a warehouse receipt in good faith shall not make the transferee liable for any default or fraudulent acts on the receipt occasioned by the warehouse operator or previous endorsers.

Warranties on negotiation of the warehouse receipt 70.-(1) The negotiation or transfer by endorsement or delivery, or assignment of a warehouse receipt for value shall be an adequate proof or warranty that the person who negotiates, transfers or assigns that warehouse receipt, does so because-

- (a) the receipt is genuine;
- (b) has a legal right to negotiate, transfer or assign it;
- (c) knows no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and
- (d) has the right to transfer the title to the goods.

(2) If the contract of the parties is in respect of the transfer of goods to which such warehouse receipt is involved, the fact that goods are merchantable or fit for that particular purpose, would have been implied.

(3) Warranty shall not be implied in cases where a creditor of the transferor demands in good faith or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security.

Trade
platforms

Act No.
3 of 2015
s. 18
Cap. 79

Cap. 79

70A.-(1) Notwithstanding any other written law, the transfer of a warehouse receipt by a warehouse operator or collateral manager under the warehouse receipt system, shall be effected through a trading platform which is licensed or approved in accordance with the Capital Markets and Securities Act.

(2) A person who operates a trading platform in accordance with any other written law shall, within three months of the coming into operation of this act, apply for a license or approval in accordance with the Capital Markets and Securities Act.

PART VIII
OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Issue of receipts for goods not received
Act No.
3 of 2015
s. 19

71. A warehouse operator, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse operator, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing that the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouse operator, or are not under his actual control at the time of issuing such receipt, commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine of not less than fifty percent of the value of such goods or to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding five years, or both.

receipt containing false statement
Act No.
s.20

72. A warehouse operator, officer or agent of servant of a warehouse operator, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty percent of the value of such goods or to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding five years or both.

Issue of duplicate receipts not so marked
Act No.
s. 21

73.-(1) A warehouse operator, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse operator, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them which is outstanding and uncancelled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "Duplicate" commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty percent of the value of such goods or to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding five years, or both.

(2) The provision of this section shall not apply where a duplicate of a warehouse receipt is issued in accordance with the provisions of section 38.

Issue of warehouse operator's goods of receipts, which do not state that fact

74. Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouse operator goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, then such warehouse operator or his agents or servants who knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods and omits to state any fact with respect to ownership, commits an offence and is liable for imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding one million shillings or both.

Delivery of goods without obtaining negotiable receipt Act No. 3 of 2015 s.22

75.-(1) A warehouse operator, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse operator who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouse operator, knowing that a negotiable receipt the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such receipt is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining possession of that warehouse receipt, at or before the time of such delivery, is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one million shillings or to both.

(2) Where a holder of a warehouse receipt or depositor proves that the goods for which a receipt was obtained was not delivered to him, court may, in addition to any penalty imposed under subsection (1), order the warehouse operator, officer, agent or servant of the warehouse as the case may be, to compensate the owner or holder an amount of money equal to the value of the undelivered goods.

Negotiation of receipt for mortgaged goods

76. Any person who-

- (a) deposits goods to which he has no title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage;
- (b) takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of lien or mortgage, commits an offence and on conviction is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven year or to a fine not exceeding ten million shillings.

Obstructing a warehouse inspector

77. Any person who obstructs the warehouse inspector or any other authorized person in the exercise of the power conferred upon him by this Act or who neglects or refuses to produce to the warehouse inspector or any authorized person any books, records, information or anything which the inspector or any other authorized person may request to be produced for inspection, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for three months or to a fine not exceeding one million shillings or to both.

General
penalty Act
No.
3 of 2015
s. 23

78. Any person who commits any offence against any of the provisions of this Act, to which no specific penalty is provided is liable on conviction for every such offence not exceeding ten million shillings or imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding five years or both.

Compounding offences
Act No.
s. 24

78A.-(1) Where a person admits commission of an offence under this Act, the Board may compound the offence by accepting from such person a sum of twenty percent of the value of the goods.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), where proceedings are brought against a person for an offence under this Act, it shall be a defence if that person proves that the offence against which he is charged was compounded.

(3) Any sum of money received under this section shall be treated as a fine imposed by a court for the offence.

(4) Where an offence is compounded under this section, the court may make an order as if the person concerned had been convicted by the court for that offence.

(5) The order under subsection (4) shall not be made unless the person concerned is given an opportunity to show cause why the order should not be made.
